

Madison Pepe
5/8/13

Class of 2016 Presidential Speech

Hi everyone, I am Madison Pepe, and as all of you know, I was your Class President for your freshman year of high school. Throughout this year, I have gained much experience learning what works and what does not. Re-elect me, and there will be no experiments like there would be if you chose anyone else to lead you next year. I would immediately get back to work while any other candidate would have to learn the ropes before starting. With your support and my leadership, we have already accomplished things that have never been achieved at Southern. We were the first freshman class to win the Wall-Decorating Contest, our Tailgate Parties made the most money, and we have surpassed our goal in fundraising profits by several thousand dollars. If you want to continue making footprints through Southern Regional and have a leader who devotes their time and total commitment to your needs, please vote for me! Thank you for listening, and remember to vote Pepe for President.

Hello Class of 2016! My name is Sam Westpy, and I am running for Class President. I've decided to run for this position because I feel that I have what it takes to guide our class in the right direction. As you are all aware, sophomore year is especially important, as we assume our positions as role models of Southern Regional High School. With my leadership, I can assure you that the upcoming year will be both memorable and enjoyable. As President of the sophomore class, I will make every effort to organize interesting and profitable fundraisers that will better our dances and school trips in the not-so-distant future. If I were to be elected president, I'd greatly encourage all to become involved with the class, as the success of our fundraisers depends on the participation of the student body. I'd also like to see our class become leaders in the community outside of school.

The ability of a Class President to successfully perform can only be measured by his or her willingness to commit him or herself to the class. As President, I promise that I will remain dedicated to the student body 100 percent of the time. I will also continue to remain respectful and inclusive to all, as I am a firm believer in the idea that kindness is always compulsory. It has been said that, "Real integrity is doing the right thing, knowing that nobody's going to know whether you did it or not." Regardless of whether or not I am elected, I will continue to exhibit these characteristics on a day to day basis.

Thank you for your time and attention, and good luck to all of the candidates.

Ethan DuBois

Hi! I am Ethan and I'm running for class president. I'm hoping to lead you in the upcoming years and have fun doing so. Let's make it memorable. Vote Ethan.

Speech

Hello there class of 2016! I'm Brianna Bevilaque, and as you may know I am currently your Class Vice President. Among the reasons that I should be reelected, there is one that sets me apart from the rest; the experience that I gained from already serving as a class officer this year. I already know the system inside and out. We've experienced failures, but also successes. More successes than I can count on my fingers. I have participated in almost all of our school fundraisers, and helped our class to earn more money than any freshman class has before. The more money we earn, the more we have to spend on major events such as Prom and senior trip. With already a year's experience under my belt as your vice president I know what works and what doesn't, as a class I now know what we like and what we don't like. After what I learned this past year, I have some new and exciting idea's that's you guys are going to want to get involved in. So class of 2016, be worry free and vote for bree ☺

Avila Reynolds

Hi. My name is Avila Reynolds and I'm ready to take the position of Vice President. First off, I would like to send a huge congratulations out to our freshman class for raising the most money in Southern history. You guys have been awesome, and I'd like to help maintain this high standard. If elected, I plan to grow our savings even further through fundraisers and school events. I would also love to get more involved with the community, hosting dinners at the firehouse and participating in a joint fundraiser with Rita's. Money from these events would help to pay for prom, graduation, and the senior trip. Overall, if elected, I can promise you a productive year you won't forget.

Over the past year, I have been serving as a member of the executive committee. This team of students has worked tirelessly alongside the officers, helping to make sure all events run smoothly. I have learned so much from watching our officer's work, and would love to put my knowledge to use.

Although our fundraisers were majorly successful, communication was lacking between our officers and the rest of the class. If elected Vice President, I would love to utilize social media such as Facebook, Twitter and Edmodo, posting sign up sheets for events and monthly progress reports.

We as a class have had a very successful year, and need to keep the momentum going. If elected Vice President, I vow to fulfill my promises and serve the class to the best of my ability. Working alongside the officers, I will assist the president with whatever he/she needs. Also, I will be open to hearing anyone's fundraising ideas, and help to get the event on its feet. Please, let me use my knowledge to assist the class, making sophomore year unforgettable. I am ready to live, laugh, and serve as your 2013-2014 VP, and so remember to vote Avila Reynolds for Vice President. Thank you.

The majority of candidates running for the position of vice president would stand here and tell you all the promising things they've accomplished, and talk about why they're better than any other person for the job. And that's completely understandable; everyone likes to acknowledge their accomplishments. However, I also don't mind acknowledging the mistakes I've made and continue to make all the time. Thinking it was a good idea to write a speech about making mistakes in order to persuade people to vote for me is probably my latest one. But my point is that trying to make myself out to be a perfect student in order to get this position would be pointless, because I know that talking about a few awards I got back in middle school won't matter when it comes to whether or not I'm willing to devote myself to this class. You don't need to be the smartest or the most organized or the most talented person to be willing to devote your time and heart to your class. Basically, I'm not going to try and convince you that I'm better than everyone else for this position because that's all based on your opinion. However, I know that I care about my responsibilities, and I care about my classmates, and I care about thinking of ways to make our high school experience even better than it already has been. My name's Jess Harkness, and I believe I'd make a good vice president; not because I have x-amount of awards and accomplishments under my belt, but because I genuinely care about trying to make a difference to this class, and I'm not afraid to acknowledge mistakes and flaws around me and work towards making them better.

Jess Harkness – Running for VP

Hi Freshman, I am Meghann Hargis, your current class secretary and I am running for re-election for the class of 2016.

Its hard to believe our freshman year is almost over. Our class has had a very exciting and busy year! However, all the hard work was worth it, because it has been an extremely successful year! We planned one of the greatest tailgates on record, had amazing fundraising success and won the hall decorating contest during Spirit week, just to name of few of our accomplishments as a class! Myself, and the other officers, have spent a lot of time working very hard both in and out of school to make this year successful for our class. But all of this is just the beginning! . Sophomore year will bring new challenges and I am excited and ready for them!

Serving our class as secretary is an honor and I am asking you to re-elect me, Meghann Hargis for sophomore class secretary. Thank You!

Emma Nelson

Good Moring Class of 2016! My name is Emma Nelson and I am running for Class Secretary. Student class can't be effective without a good secretary who is organized, responsible and takes initiative. As an honor roll student, an active member in concert choir and girls ensemble and a varsity cheerleader, I have proven to work hard.

As secretary I promise to make sure all meetings run effectively and that the students benefit from the activities. So please vote for me- Emma Nelson.

I am Chloe Hoffnagle. I've been your treasurer for the past year and would like to continue to be your treasurer. Promoting the class of 2016 has been job I have taken very seriously, worked hard at, and had fun doing - proving that I'm not only intelligent, but someone who can cooperate, motivate, and inspire different groups of people to come together for our school. As treasurer, I have been working with you, with the teachers, and with the community to help organize and plan events, while encouraging all of you to get involved in your own way to support our class. Through fundraising activities and efforts, we've had a strong year of financial growth for our class, surpassing expectations and, I know, next year we will do better. I've been a hard worker, dedicated to making our first year at the high school the best it could be. Let's continue to ride this wave of success. We've had an amazing year, let's keep the flow!

Josie Suddeth

Treasurer Speech

Sophomore year. Wow. It feels like just yesterday most of us were walking the halls for the first time at orientation that day in late August, anticipating all of the exciting events that come along with high school, like football games, homecoming and more. These are events that will happen next year and in order for them to be even more successful, stronger leaders will be needed.

Hi. My name is Josie Suddeth and I know I am your best option for class treasurer. I am currently an honors student who is heavily involved in school programs. In the music and drama department, my participation has allowed me to become comfortable speaking to others, which is a very helpful quality of a class officer. I am also an active officer of key club, where I have become a strong leader. I have discovered my love of service and in this case I will serve our powerful class. But most importantly, I am on the class executive board. I was a part of all the things the officers were doing like working football games, wall decorating and promoting fundraisers. I was able to see firsthand from a different perspective of what worked and what failed, which will help perform my duties better than my other candidates.

I possess all of the needed qualities for a successful treasurer, like strong math skills, perseverance and leadership qualities. I will work closely with the other officers to ensure that this year is greater than the last. One of the biggest parts of sophomore is fundraising. We are already quite successful sellers; we have more people involved than any other class. I will ensure participation rises with fun fundraising ideas that will ensure increased class funds. I know our exciting and diverse class would have fun with events like talent shows, auctions, and more innovative ideas that you will find exciting.

A smart man once said In order to succeed; your desire for success should be greater than your fear of failure. If I am elected, I will allow my undying perseverance to lead us to great success. The funds we would raise would go to the right places like prom and senior trip accounts. These events will be something you will always remember. A class is only as strong as its leaders who represent them and I will never disappoint you. That's a promise. So, be centsible and vote for change, vote Josie Suddeth for treasurer for the dominating class of 2016.

Madison Pepe
5/8/13

Class of 2016 Presidential Speech

Hi everyone, I am Madison Pepe, and as all of you know, I was your Class President for your freshman year of high school. Throughout this year, I have gained much experience learning what works and what does not. Re-elect me, and there will be no experiments like there would be if you chose anyone else to lead you next year. I would immediately get back to work while any other candidate would have to learn the ropes before starting. With your support and my leadership, we have already accomplished things that have never been achieved at Southern. We were the first freshman class to win the Wall-Decorating Contest, our Tailgate Parties made the most money, and we have surpassed our goal in fundraising profits by several thousand dollars. If you want to continue making footprints through Southern Regional and have a leader who devotes their time and total commitment to your needs, please vote for me! Thank you for listening, and remember to vote Pepe for President.

Hello Class of 2016! My name is Sam Westpy, and I am running for Class President. I've decided to run for this position because I feel that I have what it takes to guide our class in the right direction. As you are all aware, sophomore year is especially important, as we assume our positions as role models of Southern Regional High School. With my leadership, I can assure you that the upcoming year will be both memorable and enjoyable. As President of the sophomore class, I will make every effort to organize interesting and profitable fundraisers that will better our dances and school trips in the not-so-distant future. If I were to be elected president, I'd greatly encourage all to become involved with the class, as the success of our fundraisers depends on the participation of the student body. I'd also like to see our class become leaders in the community outside of school.

The ability of a Class President to successfully perform can only be measured by his or her willingness to commit him or herself to the class. As President, I promise that I will remain dedicated to the student body 100 percent of the time. I will also continue to remain respectful and inclusive to all, as I am a firm believer in the idea that kindness is always compulsory. It has been said that, "Real integrity is doing the right thing, knowing that nobody's going to know whether you did it or not." Regardless of whether or not I am elected, I will continue to exhibit these characteristics on a day to day basis.

Thank you for your time and attention, and good luck to all of the candidates.

Ethan DuBois

Hi! I am Ethan and I'm running for class president. I'm hoping to lead you in the upcoming years and have fun doing so. Let's make it memorable. Vote Ethan.

Speech

Hello there class of 2016! I'm Brianna Bevilaque, and as you may know I am currently your Class Vice President. Among the reasons that I should be reelected, there is one that sets me apart from the rest; the experience that I gained from already serving as a class officer this year. I already know the system inside and out. We've experienced failures, but also successes. More successes than I can count on my fingers. I have participated in almost all of our school fundraisers, and helped our class to earn more money than any freshman class has before. The more money we earn, the more we have to spend on major events such as Prom and senior trip. With already a year's experience under my belt as your vice president I know what works and what doesn't, as a class I now know what we like and what we don't like. After what I learned this past year, I have some new and exciting idea's that's you guys are going to want to get involved in. So class of 2016, be worry free and vote for bree ☺

Avila Reynolds

Hi. My name is Avila Reynolds and I'm ready to take the position of Vice President. First off, I would like to send a huge congratulations out to our freshman class for raising the most money in Southern history. You guys have been awesome, and I'd like to help maintain this high standard. If elected, I plan to grow our savings even further through fundraisers and school events. I would also love to get more involved with the community, hosting dinners at the firehouse and participating in a joint fundraiser with Rita's. Money from these events would help to pay for prom, graduation, and the senior trip. Overall, if elected, I can promise you a productive year you won't forget.

Over the past year, I have been serving as a member of the executive committee. This team of students has worked tirelessly alongside the officers, helping to make sure all events run smoothly. I have learned so much from watching our officer's work, and would love to put my knowledge to use.

Although our fundraisers were majorly successful, communication was lacking between our officers and the rest of the class. If elected Vice President, I would love to utilize social media such as Facebook, Twitter and Edmodo, posting sign up sheets for events and monthly progress reports.

We as a class have had a very successful year, and need to keep the momentum going. If elected Vice President, I vow to fulfill my promises and serve the class to the best of my ability. Working alongside the officers, I will assist the president with whatever he/she needs. Also, I will be open to hearing anyone's fundraising ideas, and help to get the event on its feet. Please, let me use my knowledge to assist the class, making sophomore year unforgettable. I am ready to live, laugh, and serve as your 2013-2014 VP, and so remember to vote Avila Reynolds for Vice President. Thank you.

The majority of candidates running for the position of vice president would stand here and tell you all the promising things they've accomplished, and talk about why they're better than any other person for the job. And that's completely understandable; everyone likes to acknowledge their accomplishments. However, I also don't mind acknowledging the mistakes I've made and continue to make all the time. Thinking it was a good idea to write a speech about making mistakes in order to persuade people to vote for me is probably my latest one. But my point is that trying to make myself out to be a perfect student in order to get this position would be pointless, because I know that talking about a few awards I got back in middle school won't matter when it comes to whether or not I'm willing to devote myself to this class. You don't need to be the smartest or the most organized or the most talented person to be willing to devote your time and heart to your class. Basically, I'm not going to try and convince you that I'm better than everyone else for this position because that's all based on your opinion. However, I know that I care about my responsibilities, and I care about my classmates, and I care about thinking of ways to make our high school experience even better than it already has been. My name's Jess Harkness, and I believe I'd make a good vice president; not because I have x-amount of awards and accomplishments under my belt, but because I genuinely care about trying to make a difference to this class, and I'm not afraid to acknowledge mistakes and flaws around me and work towards making them better.

Jess Harkness – Running for VP

Hi Freshman, I am Meghann Hargis, your current class secretary and I am running for re-election for the class of 2016.

Its hard to believe our freshman year is almost over. Our class has had a very exciting and busy year! However, all the hard work was worth it, because it has been an extremely successful year! We planned one of the greatest tailgates on record, had amazing fundraising success and won the hall decorating contest during Spirit week, just to name of few of our accomplishments as a class! Myself, and the other officers, have spent a lot of time working very hard both in and out of school to make this year successful for our class. But all of this is just the beginning! . Sophomore year will bring new challenges and I am excited and ready for them!

Serving our class as secretary is an honor and I am asking you to re-elect me, Meghann Hargis for sophomore class secretary. Thank You!

Emma Nelson

Good Moring Class of 2016! My name is Emma Nelson and I am running for Class Secretary. Student class can't be effective without a good secretary who is organized, responsible and takes initiative. As an honor roll student, an active member in concert choir and girls ensemble and a varsity cheerleader, I have proven to work hard.

As secretary I promise to make sure all meetings run effectively and that the students benefit from the activities. So please vote for me- Emma Nelson.

I am Chloe Hoffnagle. I've been your treasurer for the past year and would like to continue to be your treasurer. Promoting the class of 2016 has been job I have taken very seriously, worked hard at, and had fun doing - proving that I'm not only intelligent, but someone who can cooperate, motivate, and inspire different groups of people to come together for our school. As treasurer, I have been working with you, with the teachers, and with the community to help organize and plan events, while encouraging all of you to get involved in your own way to support our class. Through fundraising activities and efforts, we've had a strong year of financial growth for our class, surpassing expectations and, I know, next year we will do better. I've been a hard worker, dedicated to making our first year at the high school the best it could be. Let's continue to ride this wave of success. We've had an amazing year, let's keep the flow!

Josie Suddeth

Treasurer Speech

Sophomore year. Wow. It feels like just yesterday most of us were walking the halls for the first time at orientation that day in late August, anticipating all of the exciting events that come along with high school, like football games, homecoming and more. These are events that will happen next year and in order for them to be even more successful, stronger leaders will be needed.

Hi. My name is Josie Suddeth and I know I am your best option for class treasurer. I am currently an honors student who is heavily involved in school programs. In the music and drama department, my participation has allowed me to become comfortable speaking to others, which is a very helpful quality of a class officer. I am also an active officer of key club, where I have become a strong leader. I have discovered my love of service and in this case I will serve our powerful class. But most importantly, I am on the class executive board. I was a part of all the things the officers were doing like working football games, wall decorating and promoting fundraisers. I was able to see firsthand from a different perspective of what worked and what failed, which will help perform my duties better than my other candidates.

I possess all of the needed qualities for a successful treasurer, like strong math skills, perseverance and leadership qualities. I will work closely with the other officers to ensure that this year is greater than the last. One of the biggest parts of sophomore is fundraising. We are already quite successful sellers; we have more people involved than any other class. I will ensure participation rises with fun fundraising ideas that will ensure increased class funds. I know our exciting and diverse class would have fun with events like talent shows, auctions, and more innovative ideas that you will find exciting.

A smart man once said In order to succeed; your desire for success should be greater than your fear of failure. If I am elected, I will allow my undying perseverance to lead us to great success. The funds we would raise would go to the right places like prom and senior trip accounts. These events will be something you will always remember. A class is only as strong as its leaders who represent them and I will never disappoint you. That's a promise. So, be centsible and vote for change, vote Josie Suddeth for treasurer for the dominating class of 2016.